

Alive Alone Members Area Agreement

I understand that I must be an active member of Alive Alone to receive access for the member's only sections of the website. Active members must have paid their annual dues to Alive Alone and be current members. Membership in Alive Alone is only for parents with no surviving children. Membership is updated monthly so please be prompt in renewing the membership or access will be lost.

I understand that I will be participating in a section that is online and that there is a possibility of someone hacking the site. I will not hold Alive Alone, Inc. responsible should this occur.

I will not record, copy any part of this section, share, or sell any of this information and I will not print any conversations or information in any form. All information is to be kept confidential.

I understand that the One to One Connections is simply peer support, members have not been vetted and that no professional counselors, psychiatrists, or therapists are offering advice or services.

I will not discuss or promote any political, religious or spirituality philosophies or beliefs.

I will not promote my or anyone's personal business, service, or book.

I understand that I may leave the group at any time. If I do not follow the guidelines, I will not be permitted to remain part of this member's only section of Alive Alone.

There are two members only sections of the website:

One to One Connections – listings of members desiring to find other Alive Alone members for informal discussions, whether in person, via email, or telephone. Must opt in to be listed

Members Only – One or more pages with content that is only for paid members. This material will change periodically and may include interviews, recorded workshops, and opportunities for live Zoom sessions. Open to all with online access.
